Counsel for the Respondents No.5 & 6 : MR.P.RADHAKRISHNA

The Court made the following :

JUDGMENT : (Per Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, ACJ)

It appears that the writ appellant has applied for 'No Objection Certificate' and Licence to have a petrol bunk, to the competent authorities, of which the writ petitioner was aggrieved and filed a writ petition being writ petition No.12269 of 2005. The learned single Judge has passed the following order, which is the subject matter of this writ appeal—

"Heard.

> There shall be interim direction to the respondents to consider the representation of the petitioner dated 14-05-2005 in accordance with law within a period of five weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order."

We do not find anything in the order, of which the appellant could be aggrieved. However, he submits that because of this order, the respondents are not processing his application. Therefore, we clarify that the order passed by the learned Single Judge does not stop the authorities to consider the application of the appellant for grant of 'No Objection Certificate' and Licence. It only directs that while considering the application of the appellant for grant of 'No Objection Certificate' and Licence, the objections raised in his representation by the writ petitioner, may also be considered.

Writ Appeal is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
